Section 5 Frequently Asked Questions	Please read this section for answers to our frequently asked questions.
---	---

- How do I renew my badge?
 - 1) You will need to complete a Security Access Application and have it signed by your company signatory.
 - 2) Register for one of the badging classes.
 - 3) Provide any IDs that might have expired since the last time you applied for a badge.
 - 4) Return your old badge.
- How do I report a badge and / or access issue?
Contact Airport Operations at 863-834-4911.
- How do I report a lost or stolen badge?
Contact Airport Operations at 863-834-4911.
- How does my badge expire?
Badge expiration dates are printed on the front of the badge. It is the badge holder's responsibility to renew or return their badge prior to its expiration date or face an unreturned badge fee. In general, Non-MAT (Movement Area Driver) badges will expire two years from the date of issuance. MAT badges along with those persons who are designated as signatories will expire one year from the date of issuance.
- I have a current badge but I need access to another area of the airport?
Please contact the Airport Badging Office to request additional access.
- I have a second job at the airport; do I need another badge?
Your additional employer must authorize you to have a badge. You will need to complete a Security Access Application for that company.
- I have changed companies; do I need a new badge?
Yes, your new employer must authorize you to have a badge. You will need to complete a Security Access Application for that company and return your old badge before you are issued your new badge.
- Why do I need a security badge?
Florida State Statute 330.30 requires airports that have at least one (1) runway longer than 4,599 feet to maintain an airport security program in accordance with the 2004 Security Planning for General Aviation Airports guidelines published by the Florida Airports Council. In addition, as an FAR Part 139 regulated airport, Lakeland Linder International Airport may not authorize any individual unescorted access to the Air Operations Area unless that individual has an operational need to be present in the AOA and has been provided information in accordance with the Airport's Security Program.
